

Josif Szabo

February 5, 1945 - April 9, 2018

Josif Szabo, was born February 5th, 1945, in Kémer county of Szilágy in Romania. He grew up in a lovely Christian home. Although he never personally knew his father due to his death in World War II, his loving step-father guided him through his childhood, leaving him forever grateful to God. He was still young when he left his parents to go learn a profession at a trade school. When he came home from the military, he decided that he wanted to follow Jesus, and 1966, he was baptized. In 1968, he met Ileana Nemeti, and married her in the same year. In October 17th of this year, they would have celebrated their 50th anniversary. During 1969-1986, they lived in Timisoara where God blessed them with two daughters: Agnes and Elvira. In 1986, God granted them the opportunity to come to the US. In 2013, They moved from Chicago to San Antonio, so they could be closer to their daughters. In 2016 he had knee surgery, which weakened him and slowed his walking; except for an elevated blood pressure, he had no other known health issues. As a result of a stroke, on April 9th 2018 at 5:07 pm he passed away and went to see his Savior.

In hopes of seeing him again, his wife Ilonka; his daughters Agnes and Elvira; his son-in-laws Valentine and Alfred; his grandchildren Benny and Cynthia, Franke, Peyton and Morgan; his siblings Béla Konc, Ella Papp, Magdi Kornya; his brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, near and far relatives, Christian brothers and Neighbors are all saying their goodbyes.
