

Joy Nell Pennell Lipscomb

August 20, 1936 - February 18, 2011

LIPSCOMB

Joy N. Lipscomb, age 74, passed away on February 18, 2011 in San Antonio. She was born on August 20, 1936 in Garza County, Texas to I.S. and Martha Pennell. She is survived by her husband, Val J. Lipscomb and her brothers, Tom, Pat, Kenneth and Johnny Pennell and their families. She was a long time San Antonio resident and had worked many years in the construction industry. She was very proud to have been one of the charter members and two term President of the San Antonio Chapter of the National Association Of Women In Construction. The family wishes to express their thanks to Mystic Park Nursing Home and Vistacare Hospice for their loving care during her long illness. A Graveside Service will be held at 3:00 PM on Friday, March 4, 2011 at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery. The family requests donations to the Salvation Army in lieu of flowers.

“ Val - It has been many years since we lived on Winlock Dr. and got together with our families to eat, drink, and have a good time. Joy was such a sweet and good neighbor, and I know you will miss her so very much. I have not talked to her since Dan died

“ My Aunt Joy!

*Was a woman of many talents, from fried banana and peanutbutter sandwiches to how to catch a lizard without pulling off their tails. She was the light of my Uncle Valentines eyes. She will be missed by many, but never forgotten.
Love you Aun*

“ Hey Uncle Val,
Thank you for taking such sweet care of Aunt Joy. Without you knowing it, you and Aunt Joy have been a wonderful example of how a husband and wife should take care of and love each other, through it all.
Love you, Caprice & Jim Lawrence
