

Joy Lorraine Wallace

February 5, 1927 - July 12, 2012

Wallace

"My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you?" John 14:2. Joy Lorraine Coleman Wallace passed away on Thursday, July 12, 2012. She passed away peacefully at Silver Tree Rehabilitation in Schertz, Texas. She was 85. She was born in San Antonio and loved her hometown greatly. She is survived by her daughter, Sharon Wallace-Jenkins, son-in-law Michael Jenkins, grandsons Calip and Wally Jenkins, all of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; sisters Fay DeVilbiss of Pleasanton, Texas; Lenora Schultz and her husband, Ernest, of Double Oak, Texas; brother Jack Coleman and his wife, Joyce, of San Antonio; sister-in-laws Rose Stahala and Jan Coleman; and many nieces and nephews which include her beloved special caregivers Tina and Tony Strama of Cibolo, Texas. She was preceded in death by her husband, Theil Erford Wallace, Jr.; her father J.W. Coleman, her mother Frances Marr Coleman, and her brothers Josh and Jim Coleman. She was a member of Baptist Temple Church, where she taught Sunday School and worked with the International Ministry.

Visitation will be Friday, July 13, 2012 at Mission Park South from 5:00-9:00 pm. Funeral services will be held at the Chapel at Mission Park South at 1:00 pm on Saturday, July 14, 2012 followed by interment in Mission Burial Park South. The family requests that in addition to flowers, memorial donations may be made to Baptist Temple International Ministry or First Baptist Church of San Antonio's Television Ministry. "And night will be no more. They will need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever. " Revelation 22:5