

Joyce Jacqueline Brown

January 16, 1927 - November 10, 1996

Jacqueline Joyce was born to Dorothy Garton Huddle in Ada Oklahoma. As a young child, Jacqueline's mother, Dorothy Garton, met and married Thornton Cosby Huddle during the time they were both employed at the same oil company in Oklahoma. The family subsequently relocated and became long-term residents of San Antonio, where Mr. Huddle established and operated several successful oil companies. After attending Incarnate Word, (Joyce as she was called later in life), met and married Edmond Brown in San Antonio, Texas, who had recently completed his military service in the Navy. Residing in San Antonio, the couple had two children, Steven Brown and Kimberly Brown.

Jacqueline Joyce was an avid reader and talented artist. She successfully applied her talents as an interior decorator to clients in cities such as Honolulu and San Francisco. Articulate and well-traveled, she is remembered by many as a truly positive, warm, and caring lady, who consistently thought only the best of each person in every circumstance and experience. She had a wonderful ability to appreciate all people and draw them into meaningful relationships throughout her life.

Her remaining children especially miss and love her each day. May she rest in peace and the Good Lord hold her forever in his gracious presence. Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.” – James 1:17

Mrs. Brown's urn may be found at Mission Burial Park North Mausoleum crypt
42, level E

Cemetery Details

Mission Burial Park North

20900 I.H. 10
West San Antonio, TX 78230