

Joyce Ann Danaher

November 24, 2021

Joyce Ann Danaher, 75, passed away on Wednesday November 24th. She is survived by her daughter Kimberly Ann, her son John Michael, his wife Wrenee and her granddaughters: Jordan, Amber, and Cameron. She is also survived by her sisters, Sharon, Joni and Cindy and brother Pat, and numerous nieces and nephews. Joyce was born in Belle Plaine, MN and moved to Harlingen, TX in 1951. She met her husband Michael Danaher at Harlingen high school. Joyce and Michael married in March of 1965, moved, and settled in Houston, TX where their children were born. In 1977, the Danaher's moved to San Antonio where Joyce began her 40-year career in the restaurant equipment industry. She worked for such companies as: Lane Equipment, Hussmann and Kysor-Warren, the latter which took her to Columbus, GA, where she made lifelong friends. In 2007, Joyce came back home to San Antonio, where she worked until her retirement in 2017. When she was first admitted into ICU, the nurse asked for one word that described her and that word is SUNSHINE. She was warm and kind and she made everyone around her happy. To many she was called Mom or Mama Joyce. Joyce loved her children, grandchildren, traveling to Las Vegas and her beloved Texas Longhorns. We ask that to honor her, in the next few days, that you do a kind gesture for someone and maybe it will brighten their day like she brightened everyone that she came in contact with.
