“ I had the privilege of working with Joyce for six years. She had a warm heart, a caring demeanor, and a wonderful sense of humor. She was the consummate employee and a friend to all. She was proud of her family and quick to share a story about her grand children. I am sorry of her passing and offer my condolences to her family. I know that she is at peace with God.

“ My dear aunt Joyce, you will be missed more than you know, and our family won't ever be the same without you with us. Thank you so much for being the best aunt, and for giving my some of my best friends (Greg & Candyce). I will forever remember sleepovers at your house, you trying to hide my blankie, and you and mommy getting drunk off wine! I am so sad you didn't get to meet Charlie in person, but I am convinced it is you he keeps staring and looking at down our hallway. Until we meet again, love you always-Stephanie, Nick & Charlie Evans
