

Joyce Elizabeth Howerton

August 31, 1927 - January 8, 2010

Our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and sister, Joyce Elizabeth Reile Howerton, departed this life to rest in the arms of our Lord and Savior this 8th day of January 2010. Born to Louis and Theresa Reile in San Antonio, Texas, on August 31, 1927, Joyce was a beautiful child who enjoyed life to the fullest while growing up in a large family with three brothers and three sisters. She was educated in Catholic schools and felt that her years in Ursuline Academy were among the best of her life. Joyce married James C. Howerton, Sr. on September 20, 1947, and embarked on a life-changing journey that would result in the birth of her five children and eventual growth of a very, very large extended family. It was during these child rearing years that Joyce would become a life long member of St. Mary Magdalen's Church and Parish where she was active in the Altar Society, La Leche League, church maternity groups and the Parent/Teacher Association. Her role in church and school life was important to her and she worked hard to provide a strong example of volunteerism that is still carried on by her family today. Joyce was also revered for her superb culinary skills-from down home Southern cooking to her authentic Mexican and Italian dishes- she was the best and her family and friends spent many enjoyable hours dining at her table. Joyce is survived by her husband of 62 years, James C. Howerton, Sr.; her five children: James, Jr., Gregory, Suzanne, Martin and Claire; their respective spouses: Mary, Pam, Randy and Kim; 13 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by sisters Teresa Zaldivar and Dorothy Richter of San Antonio and sister Marguerite Swanson of Houston.

“ I think of Joyce as a student at Ursuline where we would meet before class and discuss the latest gossip and hair styles. I didn't see her after graduation but enjoyed meeting with her at our annual luncheon at the Ursuline. Time went by so qui
