

Joyce A. (Morris) Lair

April 3, 1934 - January 21, 2022

It is with great sorrow that the family of Joyce A. (Morris) Lair announces her passing on January 21, 2022, peacefully in her home in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on April 3, 1934 in Bells, Tennessee to Herbert Morris and Mary Sue Rayburn. Joyce was preceded in death by her brothers, Jack and Bill Morris. She is survived by her daughters, Patty Phillips and V.J. Lair (Ken Graves); son, Tom Lair; sister, Linda Hughes (Jim); grandchildren, Tristan Phillips, Patricia “Little Patty” Phillips, LaToya Murray (Xavier), Adam Graves (Latisse) and Matthew Graves (Marlaina).

As a young military wife, Joyce traveled the world raising her children and making a home that was warm, loving, and filled with family games and humor. She was a wonderfully creative artisan who trained as a seamstress and made beautiful clothing for her children, baked and decorated cakes for all the neighbors, hand-sculpted baby dolls, and produced a variety of lovely crafts that filled her home and the homes of everyone around her.

As an independent woman, Joyce adapted to the workforce—supporting her family working in office settings and the painful job of managing phone calls for American Airlines during 9/11.

Joyce was a woman of faith, resilient in the face of life’s challenges. She was creative and funny, warm and kind, strong and assertive, and an ardent animal lover. She shared all of these gifts with her family and community.

A Graveside Service will be held on Wednesday, January 26, 2022 at 1:00pm at Mission Retama Cemetery.
