

Joyce B. Massengale

January 15, 1948 - August 31, 2016

Joyce B Massengale, age 68, passed away on August 31, 2016 unexpectedly due to heart and other medical issues. Joyce was born January 15, 1948 in San Antonio, TX. She attended Edison High School and worked many years at several local drug wholesale companies from which she eventually retired. Joyce was a devoted Mother, wife, daughter, sister and aunt who was loved dearly. Joyce loved her precious cats, Bubbie and Baby her kids. She loved to have fun, travel, go to plays, take rides in the Hill Country and spend time with her wonderful friends, Laquita Wynn, Betty Sullivan, Patsy Gonzales and Shiela Wood to name a few. She also loved to gamble and shop on QVC! Joyce endured many hardships and challenges during her life yet remained steadfast and strong till the end. We are filled with faith that she is now with her husband Terry and her boys in their heavenly home. She will be greatly missed and memories of Joyce will leave smiles on the faces of many. She will not be forgotten. Joyce was preceded in death by her husband, Terry W Massengale, her sons, James Waymon Massengale and Aubrey Lee Massengale and her parents, Eddie and Bernice Rau. She is survived by her sister, Rosemary Schramek and spouse Allen, brother Tommy Rau and spouse Debbie, Brother in law, Mike Massengale and spouse Rosa; Nephews: Chad Schramek and his wife Sunny, Mark Schramek and wife, Tara, Clayton Rau and wife Meridith, and Spencer Rau. Nieces: Monica Crowley and spouse Brian, Denise Parker and spouse Sam, and beloved great nephews and nieces, Ashton, Brody, Camdyn, Chandler, Morgan and Shelby.

Visitation will be held on Monday, September 5, 2016 from 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels Stone Oak. A 12:00 p.m., Chapel Service will be celebrated on Tuesday, September 6, 2016 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels Stone Oak. Interment to follow in Holy Cross Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, may we suggest a memorial in her honor to the Animal Defense League, 11300 Nacogdoches Rd., San Antonio, TX 78217