

Joyce Weathington

January 15, 1958 - May 10, 2019

Joyce Anita Weathington was called home to be with Jesus on May 10, 2019, peacefully surrounded by loved ones, after a lifelong battle with Lupus. Joyce was born on January 15, 1958 in Tupelo, Mississippi to Autry Weathington & Evelyn Delia Roberson. She moved to Peru, Indiana, graduated from Peru High School and, in 1979, enlisted in the United States Air Force. She lived in San Antonio the rest of her life where she made lifelong friends and new family. Joyce had a vivacious personality and always made people welcome... You knew she was special the moment you met her... And she had a way of making you feel special, too! Joyce was a passionate patriot, an empowered black woman, a feminist, a sci-fi nerd, a Jesus-Loving, God Fearing Servant... and so much more! She loved butterflies and all things purple & red! She was an active member of Northwest Park Baptist church and loved her church family! She was loved by many and will be missed by many.

Joyce treasured her daughters, Maggie Wilmoth (husband, Matthew) & Jessica Briones (husband, David, Jr.) She especially loved her role as Nana to Savannah Riojas, Lilly Grace Wilmoth, Serena, David III, Faith, Jeremiah & Dante Briones and Great Nana to Joseph David Briones-De Luna. Joyce also played a very special role in the lives of Daniel O'Connor & Jonathon Quinn. Joyce is also survived by her sister, Ozro "Bunny" Cox and her brother, Kenny Weathington, nephews and nieces, Stacy McGaughy, Robert Norman & Daman Weathington, Sharon Fox, Lisa Williams, Diane King, Venus Miller,

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, Terry Weathington & Robert (Mike) Weathington, sisters, Esther (Lois) Griffin, Gloria (Jean) Kimble & sister from another mister, Pamela Quinn-O'Connor, as well as nieces, Beverly Wall, Pam McGaughy & Eunice Jones.

*I went to School with Joyce in Peru Indiana
We both served in the Air Force but unfortunately not together in our careers.
I posted this photo from the class picture i believe was 5th or 6th grade.
Im the boy standing behind her to her left. I am saddened by her loss to those here but smile knowing her heart and that her love of God took her to his side...*

When i met Joyce we connected so quickly. She reminded me of my mom in so many ways with her smile, her voice, and no matter how bad she felt when i talked to her on the Phone she would always tell me she was ok. She had a genuine care for people. No matter what she never mistreated me, she said i would always be her niece and to this day she is still my Aunt Joyce. She will be missed and i will miss our talks. Love you Aunt Joyce, RIH
