

Joycelyn M. Sexton

March 7, 1938 - February 28, 2006

Joycelyn Mazotas Sexton, beloved mother, grandmother, sister, friend and teacher, passed away on February 28, 2006 in her daughter's home, surrounded by her family. She is survived by her daughters and their husbands: Cynthia Sexton, Wendy Miller and Dr. Monte Miller, and Maribeth Derer and Andrew Derer; grandchildren: Meredith Miller and Eric Derer; sister Shirley Davis and husband Joal Davis; and former husband, William Sexton. A 30-year resident of Boerne, TX, Joycelyn taught special education children in the SAISD, the SASH School, and the Harry Jersig Center. She was born March 7, 1938 in Hartford, CT and graduated with honors from Saint Joseph College in 1959. She earned a M.Ed. from Our Lady of the Lake University. Having a great love of reading, history, and travel, she lived in both Korea and Germany and spent many summer vacations traveling with her daughters. Because of her enduring legacy of children, grandchildren, family and friends, Joycelyn will always live in our hearts, laughter, and memories.
