

Juan A. Duran

February 6, 1936 - July 30, 2024

Juan A Durán passed away peacefully July 30 2024. He was born February 6, 1936 in Monterrey Nevó Leon Mexico to Felipe and Juana De Los Santos Durán. In May 1970 Juan married his childhood friend Olga A Durán who he met at the age of 10 and Olga was 7. Juan's sister Eva was and still is Olga's best friend which is how they met. It's all his sister's fault he would say. He was a collector of coins, newspaper clippings, riding a bike when he could and taking bus rides to visit small little towns. Juan will be remembered most for making people laugh. His humor was the best. If you weren't smiling in his presence he'd find a way to make you smile. Juan also loved his grandkids deeply. For many years Juan worked as a waiter at many San Antonio hotels. He was a servant at heart even at home Juan enjoyed serving and entertaining guests. He never sat down, always just walked person to person checking on things and what was needed. Juan never cleaned up but he sure loved entertaining.

Juan was never known to be sick. Not even the common cold and his mind was sharp Juan is survived by his wife of 54 years Olga A Durán; his sister Eva De la Paz Duran; his son Juan Antonio Duran Jr and spouse Lili Duran; his daughter Carmen Bowman and spouse Kevin Bowman ; 5 grandkids Alyssa, Andres, Kylie, Scott and Aiden and numerous nieces and nephews.
