“ I will miss our regular phone conversations and reminding me that I “was always family “ You were such a huge source of support and comfort during my greatest loss. My heart aches because I miss you but I know you are at peace and no longer in pain. Love you always Uncle Juan.

“ I remember always being so happy to see Juan because he looked exactly like my Grandpa Edward. I will always have memories of my grandpa playing and singing with his brothers. ❤️

“ My Uncle Juan brings back memories of days long gone. Our weekends at Wella’s house with Uncle Juan right next door. Days of playing Red Rover, Hide n seek, Red light/ Green light and Uncle Juan doing his “lechuza” whistle from outside the back window to scare us. He sang with his brothers at parties and he was the Uncle that did the “Grito” that brought a smile to everyone’s face. Those memories (and many more) will stay in my heart forever. Thank you Uncle for being apart of my childhood. Love forever, Leticia (Elizondo) Cantu
