“ My human diary, my greatest friend and my mentor ❤️ I have never had my heart ripped out so fast... I guess all those days you spent building me up to be a woman of strength was to help me survive the greatest sorrow of my life time... As the days pass I can't help but to celebrate your life your voice I still hear, your memories are so clear and the songs keep you close.. you were a man of many things to many people, we met in a dim place where many feel sorry but we had our thoughts and dreams all on paper. A muse to one another..buddy thank you for all your time, all your caring and all your love. You didn't have too but you always made time for me to vent to you good and bad, our friendship is eternal and I'm so thankful to have witnessed your greatness... I miss you so very much.

You always had a way with words that I will never forget. I will forever have you in my heart.

“ Our condolences to Juan’s family. He was such a strong, ambitious yet calm soul. His presence in our lives will be missed so much.
This is my absolute favorite picture of him at the coast fishing with his dad.
