“ I worked at USAA for 30 years and played softball with Meme for a few years off and on. I would see him in the hallway at USAA every once in a while and he would always take time to talk with me. I always enjoyed our conversations. Great person, warm friendly, funny, seemed to always be smiling.

Playing softball with Meme was a treat. If you never got to see him play or play softball with him, you missed out.

Meme is the only person, outside of the team I played on with my three older brothers, that played with all of us Norris boys. There's a 15 year span between my oldest brother to me the youngest.

The man could play. Hit, field, pitch. The best pitcher I have ever played with and I played for 16 years. That's not including my older brothers. Meme was a ball player not an athlete, he knew the game. I enjoyed being able to play with him, know him and enjoy the memories I shared with him on and off the field and will continue to share of him, in reminiscing.

Meme it was a pleasure knowing you and sharing those moments with you. Thank you. You are greatly missed.

“ Condolences to Rosie and the entire family. I've known her since being neighbors on Lansing Lane. Those of us growing up in the Bradys were all little league ball players and shared many memories throughout the years.
RIP my friend, your memory will live on forever 🙏.
