“ Juan-

I've shared the story of day we met in my career at least 200 times since that day you hired me back in January of 2000. You took a chance on me and gave me my big break. You were a little disappointed with me when only after 3 months I wanted to move from your management at KCOR to KXTN Tejano 107.5 but you knew it was the best move for me, and for the Tejano Music industry too. Without you there'd be no Mr Tejano, Mr Univision and all the other nicknames I picked up along the way in this crazy career including launching Graham Central station back in the day and more recently Tejano Music Awards TV. None of this would have happened without you. I will never forget your coaching on how to present myself as a Mexican American in corporate America, our talks about Chicanismo, and our stage time with Selena. Brother I wish you knew how influential you were in my career and life. When I took in that family from hurricane Katrina you were the FIRST one there with assistance. You took me in as your carnalito and I will always always always be grateful for you and you taking a chance on me. You told my son once when he was 8 years old "your dad is going to be running San Antonio soon". That made an impact on him and he's mentioned it several times as I've progressed in this crazy career. YOU JUAN YOU. Without you there's be no "E". Thank you. Gone to soon brother. Gone to soon. I know you're up there in heaven looking down at us smiling at our work. Thank you Juan. May everyone acknowledge and be aware of your contributions to our culture. Rest In Peace brother. Save me some room next to Selena.

“ My sincere heartfelt condolences to Virginia, James and John. I was blessed to be close to the family for a short time but that time had a lasting impact on me. When I think of Juan I can still see his smile, hear his laughter and see the love and pride he had for his family. I am extremely sadden to hear of his passing. The family is and will continue to be in my prayers.

*Much love,
Cindy Perez*

“ I worked with Juan for many years, and he was a genuinely nice person. Every morning he would greet us with a warm smile, which was like a ray of sunshine. He was such a kind and loving man. Juan was full of good will and good intentions, which is somewhat rare in this world. It seemed to me that he cared more about people, than things. He was so proud of his family, and frequently talked about his wife and sons. When our daughter died, he was there for us. He called and asked if he could come by our house in person, to pay his respects and I'm glad he came over – he knew just what to say, and his presence was a balm to our breaking hearts. Juan's caring and compassion was a source of comfort to me and my family during a very difficult time. I will always remember Juan with the fondest of memories, and thank God for the gift of his life. When Juan passed away, a light went out from the world, but I know in my heart, that he has gone to be with his Heavenly Father.
