

Juan H. Montana

July 22, 1939 - January 5, 2021

Juan Montana was born in Deckerville, Michigan on July 22, 1939. He had two sisters and one brother.

His mother passed away when he was seven and was raised by his grandmother, Concha Montana.

As a boy in San Antonio his first job was shining shoes, then working in the fields picking cotton, potatoes, fruits and other vegetables. At age 17 he began working in construction.

He was first married to Suzanna Montana at age 17 and had three children. He was then married to Eudelia Montana for 57 years and had five children. They met on New Year's Eve and celebrated by dancing into the new year 1963.

He traveled back and forth with his family from Texas to Pasadena, California, living the past 20 years in San Antonio, Texas.

Juan Montana loved working on his own cars and being surrounded by his grandchildren.

Deddy or grandpa will always be remembered for singing with cheer.

He is survived by three children from his first marriage, Susie, Betty, and Sylvia, five children from his second marriage Johnny, Joanna, Lisa, David, and Blanca. He has combined 24 grandchildren and 33 great grandchildren.
