

Juan A. Pacheco Sr.

August 19, 1948 - November 25, 2016

Juan Pacheco Sr. born on August 19, 1948 in Saltillo, Coahuila, Mexico before coming to the US to be adopted by his grandparents Jesus and Maria Alvarado-Pacheco. Juan left to be with the Lord on November 25th. He is preceded in death by his wife Amelia Pacheco who passed away in 2007. He had one son, Juan Pacheco Jr who he loved and nicknamed Johnny as he raised him. To all that knew him his passions were his faith, his family, his Dallas Cowboys and his San Antonio Spurs. Juan was blessed with a sense of humor that made him easy to get along with and revealed a brighter side to any situation. He will truly be missed by everyone he had the pleasure of knowing. He is survived by his only son Johnny Pacheco and his numerous brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews. Family and friends are welcomed to his services for a viewing on Thursday, December 1st from 5pm to 9pm with a Rosary to be recited at 7:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Funeral procession to depart the funeral home at 10:30 a.m. for a funeral mass at Holy Family Catholic Church at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, December 2. Interment to follow at Mission Burial Park South.

“ Juan was a special uncle and mentor. I admired his intelligence and his love to serve the community. I will always cherish the summer I worked with him putting on skids on alcohol and drug abuse.

Juan's famous line "que loco" as I remember while our tight friendship while attending OLL. He was humerous and friendly. Loved Amelia and his son dearly. Compassionate friend to all. "Que loco" Juan is gone but not forgotten. RIP
