

Juan Manuel Pompa

December 31, 1957 - January 30, 2021

“A great soul serves everyone all the time. A great soul never dies. It brings us together again and again.”

If you asked a hundred people who Juan Manuel Pompa was, they'd all give you a different story. A protector, A superhero, The funniest man in the world, A daredevil, The DJ, A carpenter, A know it all, A mechanic, A builder, A painter, A prankster, A romantic husband, A great uncle, An amazing father, A great father in law, A great grandpa, the best salsa maker, batman, a believer in aliens, a believer in conspiracies, a believer in Christ and just a man you always want on your team.

Juan was many of these things, even perhaps he was a lot more. What he was, he was a strong man. There was never nothing he couldn't do, and what he couldn't he learned and still did it. He was the one that gave you that reason to Believe that nothing is impossible, it didn't matter if he was trying to entertain you by his jokes or his knowledgeable stories or just playing music. No matter the occasion, Juan was the life in us all. It's no surprise that Juan was the hero to us all. He was born in Tamaulipas, Laredo Mexico on December 31, 1957. He was a New Year Eve baby. Juan had developed a rich inner life. He worked all his life with his hands and he was proud of what he had accomplished. He turned his talents into life lessons to whoever was inspired by him.

Juan loved his daughters and referred to them as his Reinas. His wife was his Queen and his loved was profoundly known. A family man and a great man. Juan was called back to Heaven on January 30, 2021 after a long lived life.
