Juan was known for his outgoing loveable and humorous character. He was the rock and pillar of his family to lend a hand whenever needed. His pride was his job and held it near and dear to his heart. Juan was a dedicated diversified QA/QC inspector, welder, and instructor for Zachry Industrial for 42 years. In his most recent assignment's, he enjoyed working with his team of students whom he enjoyed very much. He traveled with the company making new friends everywhere he went. During his off time, he enjoyed spending time with his wife Silenia and their two children Giovanni and Gordo. Juan was enrolled at a local college working towards enhancing his leadership skills. His passion was spending time at home with family and friends grilling carne asada and drinking his ice-cold beer. He looked forward to retirement one day but continued working hard to support his wife through college and securing his children's future.

“ I met Juan in January 2020 at the Zachry home office. He was showing a group of us the pipe rack simulator he had been working on. He was very kind, knowledgeable and answered all our questions. I could tell right away he was a good man. He will be missed by his Zachry family in Channelview, Tx.

“ It will be different to go to your house without you there. Making tripas that I never liked but yours were always so different because they were so crispy over the BBQ grill. And sharing a drink with you. I'll always remember the good times with you and Silenia and the boys. And also Helen and Felix. Those were good times. GOD will let us have more good times with you watching us from heaven and laughing with us. I will miss you tremendously!! Tu novia Rosa. (This is a family joke)

“ To my forever love, words can't express the sadness that is left in me since your passing. You helped mold the person I am today and for that I'll be forever grateful. The biggest and most special treasures are the two beautiful boys you gave me. I thank God for letting me take that chance with you and giving love a try. It wasn't always perfect but yet we were perfect for each other. How will life continue without you- I don't know. But my faith says that we will be alright. Rest my love, and know you did an amazing job as a husband, son, father, provider, brother, and friend. Our boys will carry your legacy, I'll make sure they will continue on the right path. You will forever be in our hearts, never forgotten, and often spoke of.

We love you,

Silenia

*My son in law Juan
We are heart broken 💔 and have cried over and over
We miss you and love you
We have beautiful memories when you would cook on the grill for us and having some beers listening to music
I miss cooking for you and your family
Juan it won't be the same you were the rock of the family that had us going with laughs
Juan we Love and miss you
And I will help my daughter Silenia look after your boys
Thanks for my handsome Grandsons you gave me
RIP Juan
WE MISS YOU & LOVE YOU
Your Mother in law
