

Juanetha F. Sharber

April 30, 1928 - August 25, 2015

Juanetha "Kelley" or "Aunt Mauncie" Sharber passed away August 25, 2015 at the age of 87. She was born in Vernon, Texas on April 30, 1928. She was preceded in death by her husband, Alvie "Bud" Sharber, their daughter, Tana Sue age 8 and her sister Geraldine Kelley Sullivan, leaving behind numerous nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Because of her love for the Lord Jesus Christ, she was very active in the churches she attended: Bellaire Baptist Church while she and Alvie lived on the southside, then ultimately at Salem Sayers Baptist Church Adkins, Texas after they moved to the country southeast of San Antonio. She was often seen in the kitchens of the churches they attended cooking and helping in any way possible. Well-Known by family and friends for her okra patties and peanut patties, she never failed to contribute, making a difference whenever she was involved. Juanetha had many other areas of interest such as sewing, arts and crafts, ceramics, and a family favorite-holiday baking! For a period of time she worked in the financial department of Harlandale I.S.D., and prior to that a very up-scaled department store in downtown San Antonio, Wolff & Marx. Juanetha Sharber, a very special person with a true servant's heart willing to help anyone will be greatly missed; but we rejoice with her now that she is celebrating in the presence of her Lord and Savior with her husband "Bud, " daughter, Tana Sue and many loved ones who've gone before her!
