

Juanita Godkin Alonzo

June 24, 1905 - February 19, 2007

Juanita Godkin Alonzo passed away February 19, 2007 at the age of 101.

She was born on June 24, 1905 in San Luis Potosi, Mexico to Walter and Juanita Godkin. Juanita enjoyed spending time at the family ranch and helped run the ranch for some time. She was a member of the Shrine of The Little Flower Parish and hosted the Little Flower Parish Retreats at Spice Wood Springs Ranch for many years. Juanita took pride in reaching out and helping others. She was a great cook and had a green thumb, often cutting and donating flowers to the church. Juanita also loved music and was extremely proud of the role she played in raising all of her nieces and nephews. Juanita was preceded in death by her husband, Frank; brothers, Ed and wife Camelia, Charlie and wife Helen, Leo and wife Bertha and Patrick and his wife Bertha; sisters Emma Smith and husband Frank, Pauline Krueger and husband Johnny Lozano, Sr. and her niece, Lela Godkin. Survivors include a sister-in-law, Lydia Alonzo; nieces and nephews; Patricia Godkin, Joseph Godkin, Charles Godkin, Jr. and wife Harriet, Helen Snyder and husband Richard, Barbara Adams, Margaret DiPrieto, Johnny Lozano and wife Mona, Rosie Quintero and husband Reggie, Sylvia Spengler and husband Danny, Lydia Irene Ruiz and husband Manuel, Jesse Alonzo and wife Marta, Luis Alonzo and wife Delores, Robert Alonzo and wife Judy, Albert Alonzo and wife Dea, Anna Gould and husband David, Rosario Alonzo, Teresa Alonzo and numerous great nieces and nephews.
