

Juanita D. Bueno

April 30, 1930 - January 27, 2016

Juanita D. Bueno, 85, went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, January 27, 2016. She was the 13th child born to Refugio and Santos DeLeon on April 30, 1930.

Juanita is preceded in death by her husband of 59 years, Trinidad S. Bueno. She is survived by her daughters Rose Casares Enrique, Nina Sosa Robert, son Richard Bueno Mary; 5 grandsons Mark Bueno Elyse, Jacob Casares Anna, Adam Casares Janet, Matthew Bueno, Steven Jimenez Sandra; 10 great-grandchildren; and two brothers, Jesus and Felix Deleon.

Juanita's faith was the foundation of all of her endeavors and always acted in her service to others. She was a devout Catholic with a special devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary as a member of the St Paul's Guadalupana Society for almost 35 years. She had an uncompromising belief in the power of prayer and in the power of having a positive outlook in life.

Family was Juanita's first priority and after raising her children, she began her 2nd career working in sales at the San Jose Mission Gift Shop for several years until her retirement in 1982.

As a breast cancer survivor, she was a strong advocate for breast cancer awareness and also volunteered to speak to other cancer survivors whose first language was Spanish. She also was a strong supporter of the St. Jude's Children Research Hospital for cancer research.

To her grandchildren, "Grandma B" was everything and is remembered for her humor, wisdom and courageous nature. She had a special relationship with each one of her grandchildren and shared life's little wisdoms with each one of them. She was very proud and joyful of her family and the close bond they shared.
