She dedicated her life to caring for others; opening her home to family and friends in need, serving as a care provider for the elderly and assisting in caring for her grandchildren when needed. Her hobbies include:

crochet, gardening, quilting and sewing. She loved flowers, roses especially. At one time her yard was full of rose bushes. She loved her family, her immediate family, her extended family, her military family and her neighbors. Her example of loving unconditionally has touched the lives of so many people. She will be deeply missed.

“ *When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an Angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
and said my place was ready,
in heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love.*
