

Juanita Gonzalez Garcia de la Garza

May 25, 1925 - September 5, 2015

Juanita Gonzalez Garcia de la Garza, was born on May 25, 1925 in Zacatecas, Coahuila, Mexico and was raised in Los Alamos, Mexico by her parents, Lucia Galvan Gonzalez and Refugio Gonzalez. On September 5, 2015 she was called home to be with the Lord at the blessed age of 90. She is preceded in death by her husband Jesus "Jesse" de la Garza; first husband Cipriano Garcia Garcia; son Rogelio Magdalena Gonzalez Garcia; siblings Aurora Domingo, JoseMaria Chayo, Santiago Otila, Maria Francisco, Salvador Luz, and Socorro Victor. She is survived by her daughters Juanita D Sanchez and Norma Miguel Moreno, son Alejandro Annie Garcia, and Matthew "Mateo" Diel. She also had numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She married her first husband, Cipriano, and had two sons in Mexico. After her husband's death she came to the United States to support her family and her mother who was caring for her two children. She later met and married Jesse and together they had two daughters. With Jesse's support she was able, to bring her sons to San Antonio, TX where she raised her family. She lived on Commercial Avenue for 60 years where she became a well-known figure within her neighborhood. She devoted her life to her home and family. Juanita's legacy now continues in the generous spirit of her children and grandchildren.

The family would also like to acknowledge the Vitas Hospice Staff for their support in caring for Juanita. A special thank you to Janie for all your loving and caring support, may God Bless You All.
