

Juanita D. Perez

September 17, 1944 - July 9, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of a one-of-a-kind soul who brought warmth, and a whole lot of personality to the lives of all who knew her.

Juanita D. Perez was born in San Antonio, Texas on September 17, 1944, to Juvencio and Paula Perez, and went to be with the Lord on July 9, 2025, at the age of 80.

Juanita had a lifelong passion for sewing—collecting fabric like treasures and turning them into pieces stitched with love.

In the kitchen, she was known for her famous masita, a dish that became a cherished tradition among her family.

A true Elvis fan, his voice was the soundtrack to many of her days.

She was delightfully unique—full of quirks that made her unforgettable. One of her many charms was her curious way of eating Hershey's chocolates, a ritual that never failed to draw a smile or a giggle from those nearby.

But above all, Juanita's heart belonged to her family. They were her greatest joy, her deepest pride, and the center of her universe. Her love for them was immeasurable and unconditional.

She leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unforgettable memories.

She is survived by her loving sister, Elvira Perez and numerous nieces, nephews, and grand-nieces and grand-nephews.
