Mission Park Funeral Chapels & Cemetery - September 01, 2020 at 02:23 PM

I met Janie in high school we had so much fun together, we were always laughing together. I remember she had the biggest crush in high school his last name was guillen, I remember her always telling me how gorgeous his eyes were. I remember Janie wearing her black eyeliner, which she always wore. OMG I am so sad to see her leave so soon but I know she is so happy because she is finally holding her baby boy and her grandmother. I also remember her giggles and her laugh that was so contagious once she started laughing, I would laugh and we couldn't stop laughing. BYE my friend one day we will be laughing together to in heaven.

“ I have know Janie a little over a year from work. Since COVID I have telecommuted which I have always wanted. Janie is truly one of the few people I miss since being away from the office. Even during COVID we still spoke weekly. Janie has always been a professional, caring, and by far one of the funniest employees in the office. I will miss Janie dearly, as receiving a call from her was often the highlight of my day. Please accept prayers and wishes from my family to yours. Janie will be missed by many.

Respectfully,
