Juanita Grace Salisbury

August 6, 1921 – December 9, 2014

Juanita Grace Salisbury, Wolgamot, passed away December 9, 2014 at the age of 93. Born in Columbus, Ohio, August 6, 1921 to Harry and Grace Wolgamot, McBrier, she was the youngest of 5 siblings. She graduated from North High School, class of 1938. She worked for Curtiss Aeroplane, then Curtiss-Wright, where she starred in their all employee review.

In 1941, she met Joseph D. Salisbury, and their lifelong love began. They married July 28, 1942, and transferred to many air bases in Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado Springs, when Joe went to pilot training. She returned to Columbus when he shipped out to Europe. At the end of the war, they started our family in Springfield, MA, then moved back to Ohio when Joe started Veterinary school. They lived in Indianapolis until 1963, when they relocated to San Antonio, Texas, Juanita's favorite adopted hometown.

She earned an associate degree from San Antonio College and worked for the state of Texas and the U.S. government. She loved to travel and she and Joe were able to visit many countries around the world. They loved music, big band in particular, and were regulars at the Roaring Twenties and The Landing. They made many friends through their membership at Asbury United Methodist Church.

She was predeceased by her parents, her siblings: Ferol, Lucille, Chet and Evelyn, and her loving husband of 55 years, Joe. She is survived by her 3 children: Joe, Gina, of MA, Jeff, Michele Tulis, of VT, and Jan, Dale DeCoste, of Tomball, TX; grandchildren: Faron, Derek, Jay, Breann, and Elena.

SERVICES

Graveside services will be held at 11:30 AM Friday, December 19, 2014 at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery where she will be laid to rest. In lieu of flowers please donate to the American Heart Association in her memory.
