“ Oh, my Friend and Sista. We have shared so many memories together. So glad when we were young there was no social media. We have had talks about things that no one could imagine. I will deeply miss you. Your funeral was so beautiful your family and friends did a great job. You can be proud of everyone. So, remember Rebels rule but this Shamrock is still a wild flower, I will pray for you all the time. I thank you for all time we had together. I was blessed by God when he brought us together as friends. The ocean waters are still splashing and every time I see a sunset you will be in my mind. Of, course my friend you are in my prayers always. My comrade this is not Good-bye but so long for now until we meet again.

“ My bud, my friend, Judy. I can't believe you're gone. We met at HEB and became fast friends. We have almost 40 years of memories together. The best were when we were at the beach, Aquatica, Halloween days, softball games. I'll never forget you're "Spanish" speaking to a pretty rough softball team. You didn't know you were practically cussing them out! The look on your face was priceless when you realized your teammates were playing a joke on you. You took it all in stride, though, and laughed right along with us. There were the many times you were there for me; through a rough relationship, the loss of my parents and grandmother. Always there for everyone. Making potato salad for Tonya, because you knew how much she liked it. Coming home from a long night at work and still getting in the kitchen and cooking up breakfast for your employees for various holidays and birthdays. Taking in your rescue fur babies and loving them like the children that they were to you. You, also, made a great Valentine's Day " date" when we were both single. Going to Karen and Noel's house for surf and turf. And, you made me sing Otto Titsling from our beloved favorite movie together, Beaches. You're forever in my heart bud. I will miss you dearly, especially when I'm at the beach. Rest easy now my friend and know we'll see each other again. Love you always, Monica

“ I will always be thankful and blessed for sharing so many memories w u! From our first tattoos, to pool days, Seaworld and Sunday bbqs. U always wanted cheese on that Boca burger u loved so much.... I was with u when Kiska took her last breath and admired you for the love of animals that transpired to me and my Mattie boy. To our Halloween drive-way parties when u pulled up on ur motorcycle wearing your TAZ costume to the good old days of Hollywood Video shenanigans. The memories continue....but overall you always conquered and ruled the world. We were so lucky to share so many precious moments of good and bad. Till we meet again!💕 Love u always Tonya& Monica.
