“ I remember Aunt Julie and my mother, Yolanda, always going somewhere together. She even attended my wedding. I was with her alot during her cancer ordeal, she was a strong lady, never complained. She was always laughing and joking. She will be missed!!
She is in a beautiful place with OUR LORD.

“ Dear Julie,
Its been a long time since we strolled downtown San Antonio and enjoyed a great lunch at the Bistro, but I think of it often. Your beautiful smile and hearty laughter made me smile. I miss you and know Our Dear Lord has welcomed you home.

“ I remember Aunt Julia at Beverly and Ken's home. She was enthusiastic and a joy to talk with. She did not act or look her age! It was my pleasure to know her. To her family, I send my sympathy and love.
