

Julie Lynk Minus

July 3, 1916 - August 8, 2015

Julie Lynk Minus joined her hand with God's on August 8, 2015. She was the first born child of Louis and Mary Lynk in Evanston, Illinois on July 3, 1916. She graduated from Josephinum Academy, Chicago, in 1932 and lived and worked in the Chicago area until October 14, 1939 when she married William Minus of San Antonio at St. Nicholas Rectory, Evanston. Julie and Bill then began their 54 years together in San Antonio. Julie had an 18 year civil service career as a stenographer and secretary and retired in 1978. She enjoyed gardening, bowling and water aerobics well into her 80's and 90's. Time with her family was her greatest treasure in life. She is survived by her sons Richard, Kenny Sue, Fred Patsy, John, Joe Allison, and daughter-in-law, Grace, all of San Antonio and her daughter Chris Jim of Green Bay, Wisconsin; 11 grandchildren, Megan, Max, Jason, Mikell, Julie, Steve, Adam, Melissa, Sarah, Danielle and Basie; and 15 great-grandchildren, Ryan, Reagan, Joon, Fynn, Frances, Kynnerly, Cadence, Eugene, TJ, Simon, Cade, Kingsley, Menzie, Irie and Timothy. She was a devoted, loving, wife, mother grandmother and great-grandmother and a kind and caring friend. How blessed we all are to have had such a person to teach us steadfast love and faith. Julie was preceded in death by her husband, William and son, Phil, of Texas; brothers Fred, Leo, and Joseph Lynk and her sister, Agnes Lynk Didier, niece Judy Lynk Whinfrey and nephew, Bill Lynk, all of the Chicago area. The family would like to thank special friend and caregiver Maria Trevino for her wonderful love and care she shared with our mother.
