“ Aunt June was such a special lady. She had a way of making everyone feel like they mattered. Now she is in the arms of our loving Lord, proof that she mattered. She is free from her earthly pain, basking in the joy of her loved ones who preceded her. We will be praying for family and friends. God bless you all. Love, Nadine, Brandt and Cailey

“ My Beloved Aunt

It was always known that you were there.

To help us through whatever, no matter where.

You loved us and showed it and would tell us so.

You always made us feel that we always had a place to go.

You taught us all to dance in that old Barn out back.

To the tunes of Willie and Waylon or the Man in Black.

You treated us all special in some sort of way.

We are all very sad that you were taken on this day.

You are now up in Heaven with family and friends.

I am sure in some time we will see you again.

Thank you so much Aunt June for all of your love.

We will never forget you and know you are just above.

It will probably be some time before we have our next dance.

I will be the one in wranglers, a nice pressed shirt with my black cowboy hat, I won't miss it, Not a Chance!!
