

June L. Towne

May 23, 1922 - April 20, 2014

June L. Towne age 91 of San Antonio passed away peacefully in her home on Easter Sunday, April 20th, 2014. She was born on May 23, 1922 in Essex, MA and relocated to San Antonio in 1952. She worked as a homemaker the majority of her life raising her 6 children and was very active in each of their lives by serving as PTA President and Bluebird Leader. She was the epitome of beauty and grace, a pillar of strength and love. At a short stance of barely 5', she could move mountains. Her smile could melt the coldest of hearts . She loved life and travel and especially Greyhound bus trips around the United States. Our hearts and lives will never be the same and we will always have a void left unfilled, but we know she was made whole and greeted with open arms by Jesus and her son Butch. She was preceded in death by her husband, Earl M. Towne and her son, John Butch Santaniello. She is survived by her children, Jim Santaniello and wife, Bonnie, Richard Tex Towne and Diane, Randy Towne and wife, Debbie, Erlene M. Stephens and husband, Bryon and Bill Towne; 15 grandchildren and 28 great grandchildren.
