

Justin Wayne Bateman

July 8, 1986 - March 16, 2015

BATEMAN

Justin Wayne Bateman, born July 8, 1986 in San Antonio, Texas, passed away March 16, 2015 at the age of 28. For those that knew Justin, it goes without saying that he would drop what he was doing to help anyone. Since the news of his tragic death due to a motorcycle accident, the stories, messages, and photos from hundreds have flowed in to the family, which has been comforting. His big heart beat most proudly for his children, Callie and Carter, and for the love of his life, Tiffany. To his nephew and niece, Peyton and Abby, he was known as "Uncle J" who was the adoring uncle that tossed them in the air and made them laugh. Our hearts are broken, but his heart continues to beat in a donor recipient in need of a heart, while other organs are helping many in need. This too comforts the family, knowing that Justin continues to help others. We know he would want that. Justin excelled in many sports, and loved playing golf at Sonterra. He was a graduate of Reagan High School, class of 2004, and he worked at Kirkland Construction as a heavy equipment operator, until recently when he started working at Southwest Electrical Contracting Company. Justin was preceded in death by his Paternal Grandfather, William Bateman and Maternal Grandparents, Eileen and Frank Baird. Survivors include his fiancée, Tiffany Nicole Jehl; his precious children, Callie and Carter; mother, Janice JK Huey and husband John; father, William E. Bateman; grandmother, Margaret Bateman; grandparents: John and Patricia Huey; sister, Amy Gordon and husband, Shannon; nephew Peyton, niece Abigail, and numerous Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and a host of friends.
