She also loved and cared for her animals, their dog Daisy and their cat Lucky Butt who were like her children. Jingles also enjoyed gardening and had a green thumb when it came to her plants. She enjoyed sharing her beautiful flowers and vegetables with family and friends. Their back yard looked like a botanical garden. In the mornings, Jingles enjoyed sharing spiritual devotionals with family.

“ We had the pleasure of meeting Jingles when our daughter married Kenny. Her nickname "Jingles" couldn't have been a better name for her. She brought JOY to every one. She was a beautiful loving lady. She always knew how to make Sissy feel better and would have her in stitches before they would get off the phone. It was truly a blessing to know her. She might have been a petite lady but she was full of love and cpunk. She will be deeply missed at family gatherings. Balthy and I send our sincere loving sympathy to her family.

“ I had the honor of meeting Jingles and John through my job 40 years ago. Jingles was an absolutely beautiful person inside and out. Every single time she came in she was always so happy and never ever down and could lift you up just by being in her presence. When I retired I knew she would be the one customer I would miss and never forget. I am so deeply sorry to hear of her passing. My deepest condolences to John and all of her family for your loss. Rest In Peace Jingles. How lucky heaven is to have you back home.

“ Karen was born December 25 and was given the nickname of "Jingles". She was a tiny little baby who grew up as a tiny petite young lady as was her mother, "Snooky" Hoekstra. Being small did not hamper her any for she could stand her ground, yet, love and be compassionate to those around. She loved her husband, siblings, nieces, nephews, and many friends. "Jingles" was always a happy go lucky person as was her dad, "PeeWee" Hoekstra. Always happy and happy to see you!
We will miss our gal, "Jingles" who often called us to see how we were. She will surely be missed by many.
"Jingles" now has her angel wings!
