“ I did not get to visit Karen very often but every time I was in awe of her! I loved her from the moment I first saw her. My dad, Randall Cagle, and her were cousins. Their mom's : Gladys and Altha were sisters. She was the “cowgirl” I always wanted to be! Always in my ❤️ heart Karen!

“ Karen, we were supposed to grow older together in a senior home, and laugh about some crazy, funny times going back to 1995. I'm so happy that I spent 5 days with you and the critters just 2 months ago. This wasn't in the plan. My heart is so heavy; I am numb. You were the best of friends! Evelyn King “ Karen became my riding instructor when I was just a child. She taught me everything I know about horses and being a good equestrian. I had the great fortune of her becoming my step mother when I was in my teens and after my mother passed away she assumed the role of being my mother solely. Life happens and we didn't spend a lot of time together in recent years but that doesn't change my treasured memories. To my brother John, I love you and will always be here for you. To my step mom, say hi to Dad for me and ride all the beautiful horses you can in your life in paradise.
