“ If I could share more moments; I know. You shared deep moments; thoughts; pasts; and you knew. When told you did bring my Uncles, and father home as told with their father. You were tougher on those days; then at the end you told me the most. You were letting me in, the woman toughest moments you knew I needed you. I miss you. You had issues, and I am glad you loved me so much to finally let a grandchild female like Leann, and I let you in. Love you.

“ I miss you so much after you finally felt a great feeling for me. You took a good 32 years to love me; a girl/woman. You raised three men. You moved me at the end. I made more smiles when I learned your past. Thank you Grannie. I knew it was you who made me keep going. You left with your ways. I am still missing my past, family. Love you.

“ Dear Wayne and family, we were neighbors of Katherine's for only a few years but Katherine was the nicest lady. So friendly, and so easy to talk to. I remember when she was getting ready for her cruise. She was so excited and said she was already packed months before :) May God's angels guide her to heaven and his embrace and may the Holy Spirit bring comfort and peace to her family.
