

Katherine B Woldhagen

June 29, 2009

Katherine B. Woldhagen, beloved wife, mother and grandmother, passed away June 29, 2009 at the age of 87. She was born in Ashland, Kentucky to Virgie and Francis Blair who preceded her in death. She was a member of University United Methodist Church. Katherine was also preceded in death by her 7 brothers and sisters. She is survived by her husband, Norman Woldhagen; son, Scott Woldhagen and wife Peggy; daughter, Jane Krch and husband Ken; grandchildren, Ashley Woldhagen, Michelle Woldhagen, Kasey Krch, and Kyle Krch; she is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, and a host of dear friends.

Tribute Wall

WW

“ Norman:
Wendy and I were so sad to here about Katherine. She was a wonderful woman and great friend to Mom. We are keeping you in our prayers.

---

Wendy & Tom Wirth - July 03, 2009 at 12:00 AM

AK

“ Our deep sympathy to all the family for the loss of Katherine.

JJ and Allene Knaupp

---

Allene Knaupp - July 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ Katherine was a great help showing me "the ropes" at being a greeter for the church. I always thought what a nice couple she and Norman were; even before I knew they were Scotts' parents.
My condolences to the family.
Sandra Williamson

---

Sandra Williamson - July 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BS

“ Norman you were so lucky to have such a wonderful wife for so many years. We will always remember her and her friendship with my mother, and her vivacious personality.

---

Bruce & Marilyn Shepherd - July 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BA

“ *My fondest memory of Aunt Katherine is the night before she and Uncle Norman were married. I happened to see them kissing on the lawn as I looked out the window while attending the rehearsal dinner and party. I thought that was so neat!
I was 10 years o*

---

Barbara Angel - July 01, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SB

“ Uncle Norman and family...My fondest memory of Aunt Katherine is of her in her wedding gown when I was 4 years old throwing flower petals down the church aisle. It doesn't seem possible that that was 62 years ago. Life is so short, but being able to reliv

---

Shirley Braziel - June 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM