

Kathleen Neville

January 13, 1930 - March 13, 2022

Kathleen Rob Currey Selgelid Neville

Born: January 13, 1930 in Milam County Texas to Robert and Faye Scott Currey. She died March 13, 2022 at her home in San Antonio, Texas.

Kathleen was a sweet, gentle soul that only saw the good in others. She loved unconditionally. Never idle, she was interested in finding new challenges and was very talented in many areas. Exhibition square and round dancing took her to Europe and volunteering at the Spurs games made her an avid fan.

Kathleen retired as a teacher from Northeast Independent School District in 1989 and shortly thereafter became a supervisor of student teachers at Texas State University, her alma mater.

She was divorced from Owen Selgelid, the father of her children. She later married Lewis Neville and they were married for 36 years until his death.

Preceding Kathleen in death are her two sons, Robert and Craig Selgelid; her husbands, Owen Selgelid and Lewis Neville; a step-son Larry Neville; and her parents.

Survivors include one grandson, Steven Selgelid and wife Marissa, and one granddaughter Briana Selgelid; three great grandchildren, Jayden, Kyndal, and Owen; two step grandchildren, Jeremiah and Sebastian. Kathleen is also survived by Jackie Currey Thornton, sister; Tyler Graham, step grandson; Debbie Graham, step daughter.

“Let all that you do be done in love.” 1 Corinthians 16:14
