“ Dear Joe and Russell and wife,
I am so sorry for your loss. I know how much Kathy loved the three of you. She spoke of you with great love and pride.
Danny and I remember the many times we went out with the two of you with fond memories. Since we were not natives of San Antonio, you all took us to many of the local restaurants and some interesting places. I remember the day we went to the cap gun museum which was extremely interesting. We would never have found that one on our own in a million years. I think that is the place with the interesting resort. We had a great time that afternoon. I remember our trip to Port Aransas and our day trips to places like Fredericksburg and even just San Antonio to eat at Good Time Charlie's. I remember driving around seeing where Kathy grew up. I remember the time we went some place for deep fried bacon. I didn't like that but I had fun. Not only were you and Kathy there that day, but also Tony and Wanda. We had a great day.
Danny remembers the day you all came over here and we left from here with you all on this particular day. As usual, Kathy and I sat in the back seat and the two of you sat in the front. Danny, in all his wisdom or lack there of, decided to show off his driving skills and he peeled out in reverse from our driveway. Kathy let out a screech! It took her a few moments to calm down.
Kathy loved her trips to Couthatta. I remember the times she sent me of the screen shots of the thousand dollar payoffs from playing video poker. I always envied you all being able to do that. Anytime we go in a casino, Danny hovers over me. We will be going this next week to a few casinos and I will remember Kathy as I play. I forgot, I remember going to bingo nights and Kathy and Wanda would have their little good luck dolls with them. Great times.
These are only a very few memories . There are many more good adventures. However, I know that before the pandemic when we went out toward the last of our afternoons, I know that she was beginning to struggle with finding the words. Kathy was a good wife, mother and friend. She will not be forgotten.
With love, Jeanie and Danny Powell
