

Kayla Christian Marlow

November 11, 1989 - March 15, 2013

MARLOW

Kayla Christian Marlow left this world to be with the Lord on March 15, 2013 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on November 11, 1989 in Ft. Bragg, North Carolina to Ken Marlow and Joy Breutsch Curbow. She was preceded in death by her Aunt Valerie Pickering. Kayla is survived by her parents, Ken and Leti Marlow and Joy and Henry Curbow; her baby daughter, Madaleine Freeman; son, Jack Marais; sisters, Nicole and Ashley Marlow, Brittany Graap and Lindsay Curbow-Salinas; grandparents, Carl and Lynn Marlow, Ursula Barnette "Oma", Lawrence and Janice Kolbert and Carrie; great grandmother, Clairia Weirnerman; uncles and aunts, Jeff and Susan Marlow, Chris and Michelle Marlow, Angel Potter & Cheryl Trevino; nieces, Alezae, Izabella & Paige; nephews, Aiden, Zachary & Lorenzo; and numerous cousins and great aunts and uncles.

Kayla was very special and dear to our hearts, and she was taken from us way too soon. She loved life and was very proud of being a parent. She loved her babies more than anything in this world. Her Facebook page stated she wanted to be "the best ever at being a great mommy". If the happiness and joy that is seen in her children's eyes is any indication, then she was well on her way. She always did the very best to make sure her children were never in need by always putting them first.

As a child, she was carefree and happy-go-lucky. Being the youngest of four children, she looked up to her sisters and wanted to emulate them, but along with that came the normal teasing. Kayla would give as good as she got, but she always loved her sisters. She would eventually break away from her sisters' shadows and blossom into a beautiful young woman.

Kayla had a great sense of humor and a gorgeous smile. You always knew when Kayla entered the room. She was opinionated and headstrong, but gentle and kind at the same time. That was the beauty and uniqueness of Kayla.

Recently, Kayla started talking about goals and began the process of returning to college. She knew she wanted to do more with her life and for her family. Like most young people, she was uncertain of her major but had mentioned a possible career in teaching. She said she liked the idea of having spring break and summers off. Of course, that was just Kayla being Kayla.

Her family and friends will miss Kayla dearly, and until we see her again there will be a void in our hearts that can only be filled by her warm embrace. Rest in peace my baby girl...Love, Daddy

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
and each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand,

and said my place was ready in heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
for all life, I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for and so much yet to do,
it seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, I thought, just for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
for emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things that I'd miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne,
He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you".
Today for life on earth is past but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last,
and since each day's the same day, there's no longing for the past.
But you have been so faithful, so trusting, and so true.
Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you take my hand and share my life with me?
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

“ As the Family Specialist at Ridgeview Elementary where Jack attended PK with Mrs. Hirschi, I wil miss his smile and laughter in the hallways of our school. I know that his mother was very proud of the beautiful and bright son that she had as well a beautiful daughter. Please know that my prayers and thoughts are with all of you at this time. Blessings to all of you. We will miss Jack and his mom.

“ You, Hank & the family have been in our thoughts & prayers since last week - this morning in particular. We don't understand. But as the song says "When we don't understand, when we can't see HIS hand, trust His heart". We know your hearts are broken & hurting beyond measure. Wish we could do something to fix it. Just know that you are loved & you ALL will remain in our prayers.

“ Ken & family, Joy & family,
We are so sorry for your loss, and please know that you are in our prayer's and thought's. Her celebration of life service last night showed the love in her life for family, children and friends, those are the memories that will always be remembered. Take comfort that she is with the rest of our beloved family, looking over us. May God Bless her and your families.
With much love,
Uncle Albert & Aunt Patty

“ Kayla you will always be in our hearts and you will live on through your children. You were always so full of life and everyone would know when you would enter a room. I remember in high school when you had your obsession with twinkies and I brought you all those boxes of them for your birthday! You were so much fun and we never had a boring day together :) my deepest condolences go out to your family and your little ones. You are gone but never forgotten.

“ Words seem so inadequate to express the sadness we feel, please accept our most heartfelt sympathies for your loss. May you find strength in the love of family and in the warm embrace of friends. But as you grieve know that we are remembering you and honoring the memory of Kayla. May all memories comfort you and bring you peace.
We apologize for not being able to attend the services, but you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Kayla- I was only lucky enough to meet you once, and Oh how I wish I was able to know you better. The first impression you gave was just that of the way your friends and family describe you and was such an everlasting one. I will never forget your smile and how excited you were to have your little girl on the way. Rest in Peace Kayla.

“ I was honored to have known Kayla at Ft. Bragg,NC. She was a beautiful baby always smiling and she loved to play with my son Josh they are the same age, of course they would empty all the toys out and Joy and I would clean up, but loved every minute of it. She will be missed by all that was honored to be touched by her life. Joy, I am so very sorry and I will continue to pray for you always.
Love,
Teresa

“ I cannot imagine your grief at Kayla's passing. It is so difficult to lose someone so special-- so beautiful, sweet and loving. But she is with you always, and I know she is at peace with God in Heaven. I pray for Kayla's family-- that this terrible, overwhelming grief you feel will pass with the comfort that only God's grace can provide. You are all in my prayers and I send you my love always.
