“ Tina & Family,
I had the pleasure of sitting by Keith @ work. I'll miss his singing & joking. I remember one afternoon he brought in a toy helicopter. He tried to land it on our supervisor's head. That was priceless after a hard day. It's painfully

“ I'll always remember Keith as warm hearted big kid and a survivor. Very few people I have met were as honest and forthcoming as he, and it's not easy knowing he's gone now. My condolences to his wife and family. He was a great guy.
