Kenneth E. Stanford

Sept. 1, 1918 – February 16, 2010

Kenneth was born in West, Texas to Lucile and K. Stanford. He is survived by his sister, Doris Spillman, his wife, Jacqueline M. Stanford, his son, Gary A. Stanford, his daughter, Barbara J. Gressler, his grandchildren, Jennifer A. Edwards, Cody L. Issacs, Kimberly J. Gressler, Matthew S. Gressler, and his great-granddaughter, Hailey L. Issacs.

He served two years in the Civilian Conservation Corps, prior to his enlistment. He served for three years and four months in the United States Navy. He was on active duty during Pearl Harbor when our country was attacked on 12-7-1941. As an employee for the city of San Antonio, he was employed in the traffic department for thirty-three years. As a life-long Baptist, he served in many capacities, especially enjoying work with young people and fellowship with fellow church members. Kenneth loved life and enjoyed people. He volunteered in little league baseball programs and Boy Scout Programs. He will be missed by his friends at the Hermann Sons Association and his family.

“ Dear Mrs. Stanford, Gary, Barbara, and family,
Mr. Stanford was truly a great man. We loved to hear his stories. He was so full of life and we'll have pleasant memories to cherish.
Take comfort in knowing he is now free of pain and in a better place.
