“ Attended Lakeview Baptist Church in San Antonio when "Brother Ken" was pastor there and when he first came to San Antonio. He and I prayed many times together after church. He was always willing to help a New Christian in thier lives. Not only have but will continue to miss him. He would always help anyone by praying with them anytime. Had many talks with him after church.. Sorry to just hear that he has gone to be with the ONE he truly served. Thank you so much also for your Military service also. Proud to have known you. Rest now from your services not only to our Great Country but also to our Greater GOD. PROUD TO HAVE KNOWN YOU. A former Church Member. Orson H. Rathburn,.Jr.

“ I wanted to express my sympathy to all the family at the home going of one of God's servants. I remember well when he spoke in my father's church. I also remember being in school at BJU with his sons. I learned of the news because in this same obituary page, another of my personal friends was called to Heaven this week. Flipping through the notices, I recognized your loved one and wanted to extend my condolence. May you continue to experience the peace and comfort of the Holy Spirit. Praise God for the labor of those who precede us! "What a day that will be" when we are reunited to part no more!
