“ I graduated from Highlands with Kevin in 1982. He was always jovial, and popular at school. I was very saddened by the news of his passing. I had lost touch with Kevin over these many decades, yet his memory lives within my mind. I offer my sincerest condolences to his immediate and extended families. I wish there was enough time to say goodbye to my schoolmate. He has left a lasting legacy on earth. One that will last for eternity. To your memory, dear friend.

“ My condolences to the Lindsey family. I will miss hearing his laugh and his voice. I have such fond memories of working with him at TEXAS ENT. Though we last worked together in 2012 he kept me up to date of how everybody was doing and the latest news of the company. Weeks ago, while looking for a good steak place for lunch, I recalled the numerous times Him and Jason took me to the Little Red Barn. I am happy to have known and worked with such a great person.

“ Dearest Lindsey Family,

My deepest condolences to you all. Kevin and I graduated together from Highlands. I always remember him just being the nice guy. Not too long ago, I ran into him and he beamed with pride as he spoke of his family and how happy you all made him. He was in love with his wife, adored his children and loved being a grandpa! I know this is a tough time for you. I pray for a peace that will surpass all understanding. God's grace and mercy is good.

Thank you Kevin for making this place better and for being the shining light of love. I will miss you buddy. Until we meet again...

“ I remember one time when Brian and Mason were playing soccer in San Marcos and after the game he said, "I know the best ever enchilada place here!" And so we were ready to try it and said we would follow him. He said it's kind of out of the way but not that far". Well 30 minutes later and after a couple of wrong turns, we landed. And it was indeed some of the best cheese enchiladas I ever had! You are sooo loved Kevin.
