“ I feel so blessed to have known Kevin from work for 15 years. In all my dealings with Kevin, I always felt he was as kind and compassionate as his Dad George was so the apple did not fall far from the tree. These type of people don't come around often in life and I find comfort in the fact they are together again. Kevin will be so missed by everyone who knew him.

“ I had the great luck to get to sit next to Kevin and work with him closely for a few years. He had a great impact on me. He was a great man, who knew what he stood for, loved his family, cared about people and was always lifting people up. Great, great man. Gone way too soon. Loved going to Floore's to hear Aaron Lewis with him and Denise. Taught me a lot about being a better man. Kevin, my friend, you will be missed but never forgotten. Love you brother.

“ Kevin you were the sibling I almost never had. When I was six and you were a new born I protected you life progressed and as with most families I became a teenager and you became an irritating kid brother. (But is still adored you) life moved on we became adults and it was your turn to protect me when I was in a very bad relationship. Thankfully life moved on again and in the last 30 plus years we have had wonderful marriages, beautiful children, worked a zillion car deals together and most fun of all gotten to be grand parents. In a million years or a million words I could never express what it meant to me being your sister. I love you to the moon and back! Hug Mom and Dad for me.
