

Kim Git, Jr.

October 25, 1956 - September 18, 2025

Kim Git, J.R., 68, of Texas, passed away on September 18, 2025.

Born in El Segundo, California, Kim devoted more than 30 years of his life as a school bus mechanic with Northside Independent School District. He took great pride in ensuring buses were safe and reliable.

Kim's honesty and directness defined him—his words were clear, his convictions steady, and his presence always genuine. He found joy in collecting autographs and cheering on both the Los Angeles Lakers and the Texas Longhorns. But nothing delighted him more than trips to Los Angeles—a place that brought him peace, joy, and a sense of home. Family and friends will always remember his strong presence, quick wit, and unwavering authenticity.

He is survived by his wife, Maria Git. He leaves behind his children: Brittany Heidler and her husband Charles, along with their daughter Olivia; Gregory Git and his wife Alexis; and Monique Rubalcava and her husband Fidencio. Also mourning his loss is his loyal dog, Zoi, who rarely left his side. Kim is further survived by his sisters, Candace Zuniga and Virginia Goldsmith, and his brother, George Git.

He was preceded in death by his father, Kim Git, and his mother, Virginia Git. Kim will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him, and his memory will live on in the hearts of his family and friends.

“ Kim Git was a great man, my parents loved him and he always made it a point to visit with them during family gatherings which was very special of him. Kim was always looking at our inspection stickers and reminding us it's time or you forget lol. He told you how it was no sugar coating, but that's what made Kim the man he was. My heart goes out to you Prima Mary Lou and to the kids. I know this is a difficult time but Kim has been made new. No more pain no more suffering . May you find comfort in each other and may God be with you all always. I'm sorry I wasn't able to make it but I am praying for you all and remembering Kim Git as we all called him.(I don't know why we didn't just say Kim lol)
Love you guys!

“ Kim is my best friend now and forever. I met Kim when my family moved to San Antonio when I was 16 years old and Kim was 15. Kim approached me at the bus stop near our houses and introduced himself with a firm handshake. He was the best man at my wedding. This June, I called Kim and thanked him for being my best man 44 years ago. Kim said, he would do it again. Several years ago, my son asked me who I respected as good men. I think he expected me to mention some celebrity or politician. I said my father, brothers, and Kim Git. Kim Git is one of the best men I have ever known. Also, I have always thought of him as family, like a brother.
