

Kimberly Kay Neu

May 9, 1961 - July 25, 2023

Kimberly “Kim” Wagon Neu passed away at age 62 on July 25, 2023 surrounded by her immediate family.

Kimberly was born in Duncan, Oklahoma on May 9, 1961. She grew up in Duncan and then in Bowie, Texas. Kim attended Midwestern University after graduating from Bowie High School and subsequently moved to the Dallas area where she met her eventual husband, Jeff Neu.

On February 25, 1989, Kim married Jeff in Salt Lake City, Utah. Kim and Jeff lived in Salt Lake City , Arlington, Austin and eventually settled permanently in San Antonio, Texas where their family grew their roots.

Kim is survived by her husband Jeff Neu, her daughters; Caroline Bennett and Joanna Neu, her son in law Bradley Bennett, and by her beloved granddaughters Colette and Willa. Kim is also survived by her little brother Brett and her parents Gerre and Lyndel Wagon.

Kimberly was a devoted mother whose compassion and love for others was unmatched. Kim enjoyed traveling, movies, shopping with her daughters, listening to music and drinking a good glass of red wine.

The Neu family would like to express their gratitude to Danny Contran and his parents for their exceptional love and care for Kim during her last stages of Alzheimer’s disease. Danny truly treated Kim like family, and she grew to love him dearly. We would also like to express gratitude to the staff at Freedom Hospice for their amazing care.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the South Texas Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association.

“ I've had the pleasure of knowing Kim since elementary school. I will always remember her coming up behind me at our last class reunion and putting her hands over my eyes and saying "guess who"! I knew immediately and I was so happy to see her after so many years! Prayers and happy memories for the family!
