“ I knew Kim from when we were children at Lackland Terrace. She always had a smile on her face with a infectious laugh. I will always remember her and I in her chair being willed around by her sister. I am blessed to have known her. My deepest condolences to her family.

“ My heart is heavy knowing I will no longer see your sweet face here on earth. However it leaps for joy knowing you are with Jesus. I met you and Jeff at Babcock Rd Christian Church several years ago. You always gave me warm hugs and wise words. I remember every time I would lean in and hug you I would somehow hit your chair control and send you moving off in whatever direction I pushed. I remember what an inspiration you were to me in our ladies bible study. I will miss you my sister. Can't wait to see you again.

“ I can't believe you're gone and there's no explanation that can make this seem less inconceivable. There have been so many up and downs in our family yet we prevailed above those that tried to take us down. You and Jeff are the reason we found our way back to each other. Throughout the strife you stayed true to who you were and kept your heart open to strengthening our bond. Thank you so much for becoming the true loving sister I never really had & for being such a great friend. You were a true friend & confidant. I will sincerely miss your kind heart, loving spirit and tolerance of my mischief. I'll be lost without our calls but I'll be seeing you later....Love ya.

“ My heart is so filled with hurt and disbelief you are gone my Kimmy. I Remember the times you would come over as kids and when my brother would carry you in your chair up to the house. Remembering when we would go get our nails done. My memories of you I hold precious my dear friend. I will always cherish our conversations. Gonna miss the endless laughs and hearing you say luv you bunches. Till I see you again my dear friend. Rest In Peace.

“ My heart still feels heavy, my precious friend has gone Home to the Lord. She as earned her Crown and is now freely walking, running through the streets of gold, reunited with her loved ones. I was blessed to have worked with her at USAA, we were lunch buddies for years. We kept in touch throughout the years, loved it when we would run into each other at Walmart, HEB, or Bill Miller's. Loved her spirit, her heart, and her laughter. I will miss you my sweet friend. Until we meet again sweet Kimmy!! ❤️

“ Kim was sweet, kind and faithful to her Saviour. She will be missed by so many.
I find it hard to know I will not see her again on this earth, but know that I will see her in our heavenly home.
