

Koltun Matthew O'Neill

May 22, 1998 - December 17, 2021

Koltun Matthew O'Neill, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away at home, in the comfort of his grandmother's arms, on December 17, 2021, after a two-week struggle with illness.

Known to friends and family as "Koko," "Pumpkin," "BuggerBut," or "Bubby," Koltun was born on May 22, 1998, in San Antonio, and grew up to be an incredibly smart, loveable, friendly, caring, funny, and affectionate brother, son, grandson, great-grandson, and friend. Family was everything to Koltun, and he never shied away from giving and receiving hugs from the people he loved most. A voracious reader, Koltun would finish a whole book in a matter of hours, and had even begun to write one of his own. In addition to reading and writing, he enjoyed watching horror movies, listening to Panic! At The Disco, playing PlayStation, getting into debates with his sister, and spending time with friends online.

Koltun is survived by his mother, Jennifer O'Neill; his sister, Keliza O'Neill DeHoyos and his grandparents, Christopher and Jeannette Robbins. Koltun was greeted in death by his great-grandmother Annabelle Martin; his great great-grandmother Ruth Gaisford; his grandfather Milton "Cowboy" Baumgartner and his stepfather David Dehoyos, Jr.

A service for Koltun will be held on Saturday, January 15, 2022 at 3:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South. The family welcomes expressions of love and support, as well as the sharing of pictures and memories of Koltun.

“ I run an online group messaging server on Discord, Koltun, or as he was known to us 'Soul', had been one of the first members to join our little group on March 5th 2020.

He was a very active member, a very interesting guy, and over time became someone many of us considered a brother.

We would be online daily, sometimes till 4am, just talking about random novels we read, games we played, or various things about life.

There was always a fine line between reality and our little group, well, it grew to a few dozen people over time but still. We never asked for names or personal information. We didn't care who you were or what kind of life you had, we were just wandering souls who met due to shared interests in reading genres.

'Interesting' is the best way I can politely describe him but he was one hell of a guy. A friend I could sit down with after a long day and share a beer with, just talking about nonsense.

His passing came as a shock to many of us, and we want to wish his family and close friends the best. We are very sorry for your loss.

To Koltun, or Soul, from me and everyone on the server, we raise a glass in your honor tonight just as we did the day we learned of your passing.

You were the first of us to take the step on the next great adventure. We will see you again one day my brother, but not yet.

I know your out there somewhere, smiling with a pranksters grin down on us.

Goodbye my friend.
